ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS

A. Pension Cost Management (Discussion/Direction) – Pete Carr, City Manager

Mr. Carr provided an overview of information relative to the City’s ongoing unfunded accrued liability (UAL) with CalPERS via a slide presentation.

Councilmembers requested Staff investigate bringing in an advisor to further explain the City’s options for funding the UAL. Mr. Carr stated he will bring back costs for this service to Council at a future meeting. Mayor Roundy offered to speak with a Willows Councilmember to determine what they are considering for their UAL and report back.

B. Verbal update on Covid-19’s impact on the local economy and City operations, (Discussion/Direction) – Pete Carr, City Manager

Mr. Carr reported the virus case rate is declining but Glenn County needs three weeks of lower-case rate and lower test positivity before it can proceed to the next tier. Seventeen new cases occurred over the weekend; there are two in the hospital and 71 active cases. Vaccinations are very limited by supply and the Optum Serve testing site remains open for walk-ins.

Grants to businesses from HCD’s CV-1 program are in progress and discussion with County officials on what can be done with the next round, CV-2 and 3, have begun.

CITY COUNCIL COMMUNICATIONS AND REPORTS

Councilmember Dobbs:

- OVFD Spaghetti Feed and raffle went really well.

Councilmember Irvin:

- Nothing to report

Councilmember Hoffman:

- The Planning Commission and Transit Commission meetings have been cancelled.

Mayor Roundy:

- The Transportation Commission will still be meeting;
- Disappointed with Glenn Co. LAFCO and their lack of action;
- Thanked Vice Mayor Tolley for chairing the meeting.

Vice Mayor Tolley:

- Learning a great deal from CA Cities New Councilmember Academy;
- Requested placing on a future agenda discussion on Robbins Street improvements. Upon consensus of the Councilmembers, this item will be placed on a future agenda.

Meeting adjourned at 8:28 p.m.

Janet Wackerman, City Clerk

Bruce T. Roundy, Mayor
